

KCPDC Professional Development Conference

May 22, 2024

Johnson County Community College

MAKE THE CONNECTION

This annual Professional Development Conference targets supervisory, technical, and support employees and provides an opportunity to learn and network with other higher education professionals in the Kansas City area.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

DR. KATIE ERVIN
SPHR, SHRM-SPC,
FOUNDER AND CEO OF
CATALYST DEVELOPMENT

Dr. Ervin is the Founder and CEO of Catalyst Development. Throughout her career, she has established a reputation as a transformational leader driven by challenge, undeterred by obstacles, and committed to furthering standards of excellence. In her work, she has saved organizations millions of dollars by focusing on building a strong culture and investing in people. Dr. Ervin believes that her work is all about the people! Her work in developing strong leaders and teams focuses on critical career skill building to develop strong cultures and grow organizations.

Dr. Ervin's area of research is workplace motivation based on self-determination theory and the impact of an employee's perception of their organization's support. Her first book "You Might Be An Asshole But It Might Not Be Your Fault" was released April 21, 2023 and was the #1 new release best seller in human resources as well as educational leadership on Amazon.

CONNECT IN THE WORKPLACE

CONNECT TO YOURSELF

CONNECT THROUGH TECHNOLOGY

CONNECT TO THE FUTURE

Sessions Offered:

- Creating Meaningful Connections
- Professionalism in the work place
- What's in my Backpack?
- Supporting the LGBTQ+ Community in Your Office
- Facilitating Mindfulness
- Nature Journaling
- Develop a Culture of Team Care
- Are you Ready for Mid-Level Leadership?
- Clearing Your Plate
- Intentional Self-Love and Radical Self-Acceptance
- Celebrating Authenticity and Connection
- Team Building and Equity

Learn more about KCPDC
Visit kcpdc.org